

Crown Employees Grievance Settlement Board

ANNUAL REPORT
2014-2015

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

Over the past fiscal year the Board continued to provide effective and efficient dispute resolution services to the parties that it serves. A particular highlight of this service was the Board's success in working with Treasury Board Secretariat and OPSEU to refine the med-arb process, in order to make the process even more efficient. With the commitment of the parties and the Vice Chairs to a more expedited process, the Board has been able to increase its efficiency in providing high quality labour relations solutions to the parties. The Board continues to take advantage of technology in order to find efficiencies and this year experimented with video-conferencing. The Board continued to work closely with the parties, through its Governance Council, to constantly review its service delivery, in order to ensure that the best possible service is provided.

1. GSB MANDATE

The Grievance Settlement Board (the "Board") was established by section 20 of the Crown Employees Collective Bargaining Act, 1972, S.O. 1972, c.67 and is continued by section 46 of the Crown Employees Collective Bargaining Act, 1993, S.O. 1993, c.3 8, as amended by S.O. 1995, c. I (CECBA).

The Board exercises the powers and performs the duties conferred upon it by the CECBA. Subsection 7(3) of the CECBA provides that:

7. (3) Every collective agreement relating to Crown employees shall be deemed to provide for the final and binding settlement by arbitration by the Grievance Settlement Board, without stoppage of work, of all differences between the parties arising from the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the agreement including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable. 1993, c.38, s.7 (3).

The Crown Employees' Grievance Settlement Board (GSB) is funded as a budget item of the Ministry of Labour. All costs directly related to dispute resolution are allocated to the parties and are recovered from them. The GSB staff provides services to the Public Service Grievance Board (PSGB), an agency of Treasury Board Secretariat. The PSGB resolves grievances filed by management/excluded Crown employees under Part V of Regulation 977 to the Public Service Act. Expenditures made on behalf of the PSGB are recovered and refunded to the GSB.

The Chair of the Grievance Settlement Board is a part-time position appointed by Order-in-Council. The Registrar of the GSB is the most senior full-time civil servant at the GSB and reports to the Chair. The Registrar is directly responsible for all administrative matters. The Chair and the Registrar are jointly responsible for policy matters.

The GSB has entered into partnership agreements with its client group to fully implement the requirements of the Crown Employees Collective Bargaining Act. The partnership agreement provides for a Governance Council (see page 19). As a result of the partnership agreement, some of the governance is determined by decisions made and minuted at the Governance Committee meetings, resulting in accountability to the client group with respect to some GSB administration and policy issues.

The Grievance Settlement Board is an adjudicative agency and is viewed by its clientele to have independence and neutrality. The GSB's independence is preserved by its physical location, separate from government agencies other than the PSGB and by virtue of the fact that the GSB uses adjudicators who are prominent and well respected in the private sector labour relations community.

The obligation of the Board is to provide dispute resolution services and work with the parties to improve labour relations within the Ontario Public Service. The Board provides timely, concise decisions resulting in consistent advice and guidance to the parties in the settlement of specific disputes.

Mediation continues to be the manner in which the large majority of grievances are resolved. Different workplaces have developed their own protocols and practices for mediation. Vice Chairs have developed in-depth knowledge about various workplaces, which has allowed them to be particularly effective in resolving workplace problems. The consensual appointment process, whereby the parties mutually agree upon which Vice Chair will mediate or arbitrate any particular grievance allows the parties to benefit from the particular skills and knowledge of individual Vice Chairs.
