ACCESS TO INFORMATION

DIVISION A - OBTAINING ACCESS TO RECORDS

Right of access

5. (1) A person who makes a request under section 6 has a right of access to any record in the custody or under the control of a public body, including a record containing personal information about the applicant.

Information excepted from disclosure

(2) The right of access to a record does not extend to information excepted from disclosure under Division B of this Part, but where that information can reasonably be severed from a record, an applicant has a right of access to the remainder of the record.

Fees

(3) The right of access to a record is subject to the payment of any applicable fee.

How to make an access request

6. (1) To obtain access to a record, a person must make a written request to the public body that the person believes has custody or control of the record.

Request to be detailed

(2) The request must provide enough detail to enable the public body to identify the record.

Request for copy of record

(3) The applicant may ask for a copy of the record or ask to examine the record.

Anonymity

6.1.(1) The head of a public body shall ensure that the name of an applicant is disclosed only to a person authorized to receive the request on behalf of the public body and, where necessary, the Information and Privacy Commissioner.

Exceptions

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a request
- (a) respecting personal information about the applicant; or
 - (b) where the name of the applicant is necessary to respond to the request and the applicant has consented to its disclosure.

Limitation

(3) The disclosure of an applicant's name in a request referred to in subsection (2) shall be limited to the extent necessary to respond to the request.

Limitation applies until final response sent

(4) The limitation on disclosure of an applicant's name under subsection (1) applies until the final response to the request is sent to the applicant.

Disclosure limited to extent necessary

(5) The disclosure of an applicant's name after the final response to the request is sent to the applicant shall be limited to circumstances where such disclosure is necessary

- (a) to avoid harm to a public body; or
- (b) to allow a public body to enforce a legal right that it may have against any person.

S.Nu. 2017,c.26,s.4.

Duty to assist applicants

7. (1) The head of a public body shall make every reasonable effort to assist an applicant and to respond to an applicant openly, accurately, completely and without delay.

Duty to create document

- (2) The head of a public body shall create a record for an applicant where
- (a) the record can be created from a machine readable record in the custody or under the control of the public body using its normal computer hardware and software and technical expertise; and
 - (b) creating the record would not unreasonably interfere with the operations of the public body.

Language of access

(3) The head of a public body shall give access to a record in the Official Language of Nunavut requested by an applicant where

- (a) the record already exists in the control of the public body in that language; or
- (b) the head of the public body considers it to be in the public interest to have a translation of the record prepared in that language.

No translation fee

(4) An applicant shall not be required to pay a fee for the translation of a record. S.Nu. 2005,c.3,s.1(3); S.Nu. 2017,c.26,s.21.

- (a) the time limit is extended under section 11; or
 - (b) the request has been transferred under section 12 to another public body.

Effect of failure to respond

(2) The failure of a head to respond to a request in time is to be treated as a decision to refuse access to the record. S.Nu. 2017,c.26,s.5.

Contents of response

9. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the applicant must be told, in a response under subsection 8(1),
- (a) whether or not the applicant is entitled to access to the record or to part of the record under this Act;
 - (b) if the applicant is entitled to access, where, when and how access will be given; and
 - (c) if access to the record or to part of the record is refused
 - (i) the reasons for the refusal and the provision of this Act on which the refusal is based,
 - (ii) the name, title, office address and office telephone number of an officer or employee of the public body who can answer the applicant's questions about the refusal, and
 - (iii) that the applicant may ask for a review under subsection 28(1).

Exception

- (2) The head of a public body may refuse to confirm or deny the existence of a record
- (a) containing information described in section 20 or 21; or
 - (b) containing personal information respecting a third party, where disclosure of the information would be an unreasonable invasion of the third party's personal privacy.

How access will be given

10. (1) Where an applicant is told under subsection 9(1) that access to a record will be given, the head of the public body concerned must comply with this section.

Copy of record to be provided with response

- (2) Where an applicant has asked for a copy of a record, the copy must be provided with the response or the applicant must be given reasons for the delay in providing the copy if
- (a) the record, or the part of it to which access will be given, can be reasonably reproduced by the public body using its normal equipment and expertise; and

- (b) creating the copy would not unreasonably interfere with the operations of the public body.

Examination of record

(3) Where an applicant has asked to examine a record or when a copy is not being provided under subsection (2), the applicant must

- (a) be permitted to examine the record or part of the record; or
- (b) be given access in accordance with the regulations.

Information about applicant's health

(4) Despite subsections (2) and (3), access to personal information relating to an applicant's physical or mental health may be given only in a manner authorized by the regulations. S.Nu. 2010,c.4,s.2(2).

Extension of time limit for responding

11. (1) The head of a public body may extend the time for responding to a request for a reasonable period where

- (a) the applicant does not give enough detail to enable the public body to identify a requested record;
- (b) a large number of records is requested or must be searched to identify the requested record and meeting the time limit would unreasonably interfere with the operations of the public body;
- (c) more time is needed to consult with a third party or another public body before the head can decide whether or not the applicant is entitled under this Act to access to a requested record;
- (d) a third party asks for a review under subsection 28(2); or
- (e) a requested record exists in the control of the public body only in a language other than the Official Language of Nunavut requested by the applicant and additional time is required for translation.

Notifying applicant of extension

(2) Where the time for responding to a request is extended under subsection (1), the head of the public body must tell the applicant without delay

- (a) the reason for the extension;
- (b) when a response can be expected; and
- (c) that the applicant may ask for a review of the extension under subsection 28(1).

Document to be provided

(3) Where the time for responding to a request is extended under paragraph (1)(e), the head of the public body shall provide access to a record or a copy of a record in the original language of the record within the time limit specified under subsection 8(1). S.Nu. 2012, c.13, s.2,3; S.Nu. 2017,c.26,s.21.

Transferring request to another public body

12. (1) The head of a public body may transfer a request for access to a record and, if necessary, the record, to another public body where

- (a) the record was produced by or for the other public body;
- (b) the other public body was the first to obtain the record; or
