ARCHAEOLOGY ACT
Chapter A-17.1
REGULATIONS

Pursuant to section 17 of the Archaeology Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. A-17.1, Council made the following regulations:

1. Definitions

In these regulations

- (a) “Act” means the Archaeology Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. A-17.1;
- (b) “designation” means the designation by the Minister of an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site under subsection 4(1) of the Act;
- (c) “municipality” means the municipality in which an archaeological site is located;
- (d) “notice of intention to designate an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site” means a notice of the Minister’s intention to make an order designating an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site under clause 4(2)(a) of the Act;
- (e) “owner” includes a person with a legal interest in the parcel of land containing an archaeological site;
- (f) “registry” means an office of the Registrar as defined in the Registry Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. R-10;
- (g) “temporarily protected archaeological site” means an archaeological site that is, by order of the Minister, designated as a temporarily protected archaeological site under subsection 4(4) of the Act. (EC141/09)

2. Criteria for designation

The Minister shall apply the following criteria in determining whether to make an order designating an archaeological site as protected archaeological site under subsection 4(1) of the Act:

- (a) the age of the site;
- (b) the significance of the site;
- (c) the context of the site;
- (d) the integrity of the site;
- (e) the contribution or potential for contribution to the understanding of the history of the province. (EC141/09)

3. Prescribed persons

- (1) For the purposes of clause 4(2)(b) of the Act and these regulations, the following persons are the prescribed persons:
- (a) a person who is the owner of the parcel of land containing an archaeological site;
 - (b) the municipality in which an archaeological site is located;
 - (c) a person who owns a parcel of land adjoining an archaeological site.

Notice of Intention to designate

- (2) Where the Minister intends to make an order designating an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site, the Minister shall cause a copy of the notice of intention to designate an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site, in Form 1, as set out in the Schedule to these regulations,
- (a) to be served on the prescribed persons in respect of the archaeological site; and
 - (b) to be published in the Gazette.

Contents of notice of intention to designate

- (3) A notice of intention to designate an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site shall contain
- (a) the municipal address and a legal description of the archaeological site;
 - (b) a summary of the significance of the proposed designation order;
 - (c) information respecting the consequences of the proposed designation order;
 - (d) a date and time by which the prescribed persons or an interested or affected party may comment on or object to the proposed designation order;
 - (e) information in respect of how to make an objection to the proposed designation order; and
 - (f) such other information as the Minister considers necessary or advisable.

Amended notice of intention

- (4) The Minister
- (a) may amend a notice of intention to designate an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site, in Form 2, as set in the Schedule to these regulations; and
 - (b) shall serve and publish the amended notice of intention to designate an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site in accordance with subsection (2).

Notice of cancellation

- (5) The Minister may cancel a notice of intention to designate an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site at any time before the designation occurs.

Idem

- (6) Where the Minister cancels a notice of intention to designate an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site under subsection (5), the notice of cancellation of the notice of intention to designate an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site shall be in Form 3, as set out in the Schedule to these regulations. (EC141/09)

4. No alteration for 120 days

No person who is served with a notice of intention to designate an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site shall, within 120 days after the date the notice of intention to designate has been served and published in accordance with subsection 3(2), alter, destroy or undertake any work in respect of the archaeological site that is proposed to be designated as a protected archaeological site. (EC141/09)

5. Notice of Objection

Any

- (a) prescribed person who is served with a notice of intention to designate an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site under subsection 3(2); or
- (b) interested or affected party likely to be effected by a proposed designation order,

may object to the proposed designation order by filing a notice of objection to a protected archaeological site designation, in Form 4, as set out in the Schedule to these regulations, with the Minister within 30 days after the date of the publication in the Gazette of the notice of intention to designate an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site. (EC141/09)

6. Designation if no objection

- (1) Where no notice of objection to a protected archaeological site designation is filed with the Minister in accordance with section 5, the Minister may make an order under subsection 4(1) of the Act designating an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site.

Consideration of objections

- (2) Where a notice of objection to a protected archaeological site designation is filed with the Minister in accordance with section 5, the Minister, within 90 days after the date of service of the notice of objection,
 - (a) shall consider every such notice of objection filed; and
 - (b) may
 - (i) designate the archaeological site as a protected archaeological site as described in the notice of intention to designate an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site, or
 - (ii) cancel the notice of intention to designate an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site.

Service of notice

- (3) Where the Minister designates an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site, the Minister shall cause a copy of the notice of protected archaeological site designation, in Form 5, as set out in the Schedule to these regulations,
 - (a) to be served on the prescribed persons and any interested or affected party who filed a notice of objection to a protected archaeological site designation;
 - (b) to be published in the Gazette; and
 - (c) to be filed in the Register and appropriate registry. (EC141/09)

7. Temporary designation

- (1) Where the Minister has, by order, designated an archaeological site as a temporarily protected archaeological site under subsection 4(4) of the Act, the Minister shall cause a copy of the notice of temporarily protected archaeological site designation, in Form 6, as set out in the Schedule to these regulations,
- (a) to be served on the prescribed persons;
 - (b) to be published in the Gazette; and
 - (c) to be filed in the Register and appropriate registry.

Contents of notice

- (2) The notice of temporarily protected archaeological site designation shall contain
- (a) the municipal address and a legal description of the archaeological site;
 - (b) the specified period for which the archaeological site has been designated as a temporarily protected archaeological site;
 - (c) a summary of the penalties for a contravention of the notice of temporarily protected archaeological site designation;
 - (d) the date and time by which the prescribed persons may comment, in writing, on the notice of temporarily protected archaeological site designation; and
 - (e) such other information as the Minister considers necessary or advisable.

Cancellation of temporary designation

- (3) The Minister may cancel a notice of temporarily protected archaeological site designation order by issuing a notice of cancellation of temporary protected archaeological site designation, in Form 7, as set out in the Schedule to these regulations, and such cancellation shall be served, published and filed in accordance with the manner set out in subsection (1).
(EC141/09)

8. Appeal from designation

- (1) The owner of the parcel of land containing an archaeological site may appeal a protected archaeological site designation order made by the Minister under subsection 4(1) of the Act, by filing a notice of appeal with the Commission, not later than 30 days after the date the protected archaeological site designation order was made by the Minister.

Service of notice of appeal

- (2) A notice of appeal filed with the Commission under subsection (1) shall be in the form approved by the Commission and shall be served on:
- (a) the Commission;
 - (b) the Minister.

Notice of appeal hearing

- (3) The Commission shall give written notice to the owner of the parcel of land containing the archaeological site, the Minister, and any other interested or affected party of the date, time and place of the hearing of the appeal.

Commissioner to determine its own procedure

- (4) The Commission shall, when hearing an appeal, determine its own procedure, subject to adherence to the rules of natural justice.

Decision of the Commission

- (5) The Commission shall hear and decide an appeal and shall issue an order giving effect to its disposition.

Cancel order

- (6) The Commission may vary, confirm or cancel the protected archaeological site designation order.

Certified copy of decision or order

- (7) The Commission shall give written reasons for its decision and provide a certified copy of its decision or order to the appellant and the Minister. (EC141/09)

9. Cancellation of designation

- (1) The Minister may cancel an order designating an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site where the Minister is satisfied the archaeological site has been damaged or destroyed, or as the Minister considers necessary or advisable.

Notice published, served, filed

- (2) Where the Minister, under subsection (1), has cancelled an order of designation of an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site, the Minister shall cause a copy of the notice of cancellation of an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site designation, in Form 8, as set out in the Schedule to these regulations,
- (a) to be served on the prescribed persons;
 - (b) to be published in the Gazette; and
 - (c) to be filed in the Register and appropriate registry.

Does not affect investigation, charges

- (3) The cancellation of an archaeological site as a protected archaeological site designation order does not affect an investigation of, or charges brought against, any person for an offence committed under the Act or these regulations.

May be re-designated

- (4) An archaeological site that had been designated as a protected archaeological site and that was subject to a designation order which has been cancelled, may be re-designated as a protected archaeological site in accordance with the procedure for designation set out in the Act. (EC141/09)

10. Applicant requirements

- (1) An application for an archaeological permit under subsection 7(1) of the Act shall be in Form 9, as set out in the Schedule to these regulations, and include the following information:
- (a) a statement that the applicant will accept
 - (i) responsibility for all of the scientific aspects of the archaeological investigation both in the field and in the laboratory, and
 - (ii) responsibility for the conduct of the archaeological investigation in the field;
 - (b) a current resume including the applicant's educational background as well as any experience pertinent to the proposed archaeological investigation;

- (c) documentation evidencing that the applicant has received supervised field training in archaeological field surveying and excavation and has demonstrated the capacity to design and carry out the project described in the application for an archaeological permit;
- (d) where an archaeological site is likely to be of significance to the aboriginal community, information in respect of any consultations that have taken place with the aboriginal community.

Recording of archaeological site information

- (2) The holder of an archaeological permit issued by the Minister under subsection 7(2) of the Act shall ensure that all archaeological site information is properly recorded on such forms as the Minister may approve.

Archaeological permit

- (3) An archaeological permit issued by the Minister under subsection 7(2) of the Act shall be in Form 10, as set out in the Schedule to these regulations.

Significance to aboriginal community

- (4) Where the Minister is satisfied that an application for an archaeological permit involves an archaeological site that is, or is likely to be, of significance to the aboriginal community, the Minister shall refuse to issue the archaeological permit unless the Minister is satisfied that appropriate consultations have taken place with such aboriginal groups as the Minister considers appropriate. (EC141/09)

11. Application for work permit

An application for a work permit under subsection 8(1) of the Act shall be in Form 11, as set out in the Schedule to these regulations, and include the following information:

- (a) a description of the proposed work the applicant intends to carry out at the protected archaeological site;
- (b) a statement explaining why the work is necessary at the protected archaeological site;
- (c) the proposed timeline in respect of the schedule of work to be carried out at the protected archaeological site;
- (d) the names of the architect and contractor conducting the work at the protected archaeological site, including their contact information;
- (e) a statement explaining how the work will impact the protected archaeological site;
- (f) proposed mitigation measures to be carried out at the protected archaeological site. (EC141/09)

12. Validity of permit

- (1) An archaeological permit or a work permit is valid only for the specified time, description of work to be carried out, and locations of work to be carried out at a protected archaeological site that are outlined in the permit.

Permit produced to inspector

- (2) A person who holds an archaeological permit or a work permit shall produce the permit to the Director, upon request. (EC141/09)

13. Amendment of permit

- (1) A person who holds an archaeological permit or a work permit may apply to the Minister to amend the permit.

Amendment of permit

- (2) The Minister may allow, refuse, or vary the requested amendment in respect of an archaeological permit or a work permit in whole or in part, and the amended permit shall be re-issued to specify any such amendment or variation. (EC141/09)

14. Submission to Minister

- (1) The holder of an archaeological permit or a work permit shall, within 60 days after the expiration of such permit or within such further period as is specified in the permit, submit to the Minister, in writing, details in respect of the locations of all newly discovered archaeological sites and information in respect of all revisits to known archaeological sites.

Project report

- (2) The holder of an archaeological permit or a work permit shall, within one year after the expiration of such permit or within such further period of time as is specified in the permit, submit a final project report to the Minister in accordance with subsection (3).

Project report requirements

- (3) The final project report submitted to the Minister by the holder of an archaeological permit or a work permit shall
- (a) describe the fieldwork undertaken and the location and extent of the investigations at each archaeological site;
 - (b) describe the methodologies used in data acquisition, recording and analysis including field, archival and laboratory investigations;
 - (c) describe the environmental factors and cultural history relevant to the investigations at each archaeological site;
 - (d) assess the current physical status of the archaeological site and any present or potential factors that could alter the current physical status of the site;
 - (e) interpret the significance and age of the archaeological site investigated, based on a summary investigation of the findings; and
 - (f) assess the results of the archaeological site investigation in relation to the scope and objectives of the project, as described in the archaeological permit or work permit.

Publications or theses

- (4) The holder of an archaeological permit or a work permit shall submit to the Minister copies of all publications or theses produced by the permit holder that contain any references to archaeological research conducted under the archaeological permit or work permit. (EC141/09)

SCHEDULE

FORM 1
NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE AN ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITE AS A PROTECTED ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITE

TAKE NOTICE THAT I, the Minister of Communities, Cultural Affairs and Labour for the Province of Prince Edward Island, intend to designate the following archaeological site as a protected archaeological site, as described in the attached legal description, in accordance with the Act and the regulations:

(street or road name and number)
.....
(municipality)
(property number) (owner's name)

I am satisfied that in accordance with the Act and the regulations, this site represents a significant archaeological feature in Prince Edward Island and I intend to designate this site, including all land appurtenant to it, as a protected archaeological site on or after, to be protected under the authority of the Act.

Where a site is designated as a protected archaeological site, no person shall build on or undertake works that may affect any site designated under the Act without a permit. By the authority of section 4 of the regulations, no person shall change or alter the site or area for a period of 120 days from the date of service of this notice, unless this notice is otherwise cancelled under the Act or the regulations.

Any prescribed person or interested or affected party likely to be effected by the intended designation order may object to the intended designation by serving a notice of objection to a protected archaeological site designation within 30 days of the date of the publication of this Notice in the Gazette. Service of a notice of objection to a protected archaeological site designation must be made on me, in care of:
Archaeology Coordinator
Division of Culture, Heritage, and Libraries
Department of Communities, Cultural Affairs and Labour
P.O. Box 2000, Charlottetown, PE C1A 7N8.

A notice of objection to a protected archaeological site designation form may be obtained from that office.

If a notice of objection to a protected archaeological site designation is served upon me within the prescribed time, I am required to proceed in accordance with subsection 6(2) of the regulations. If no notice of objection to a protected archaeological site designation is served as prescribed, I may proceed with the designation in accordance with subsection 6(1) of the regulations.
