EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 replaces the definition in clause 1(d) to include unfair labour practices under any section of the Act rather than only under section 10.

SECTION 2 rephrases clause 2(2)(d) to eliminate duplication. It also substitutes gender neutral language.

SECTION 3 eliminates the need to file a copy of the union constitution and other duplicate documents with each application, where that information is already on file with the Board. It also provides for inspection by parties of material listed under clause 3(2)(c), while material listed in clause 3(2)(d) is available only with consent of the Board. It also substitutes gender neutral language.

SECTION 4 substitutes gender neutral language.

SECTION 5 substitutes a reference to form 2.

SECTION 6 substitutes gender neutral language.

SECTION 7 substitutes gender neutral language.

SECTION 8 gives the authority to sign decisions of the Board to the Chief Executive Officer or the panel having jurisdiction in the matter.

SECTION 9 provides for service of documents. It also substitutes gender neutral language.

SECTION 10 reduces duplication by eliminating the need to file the union constitution or collective agreement under clauses 28(3)(a) or (b) when that information is already on file with the Board. It also substitutes gender neutral language.

SECTION 11 deletes a reference to form 15 and adds a reference to form 2.

SECTION 12 ensures that a failure to file an intervention does not prevent a party from having a continued interest in an application. It also substitutes gender neutral language.

SECTION 13 allows the Board to determine what documents should be filed with it.

SECTION 14 substitutes gender neutral language.

SECTION 15 requires the CEO of the Board to send a copy of a complaint to the respondent and gives 7 days for the respondent to reply to the complaint. It also substitutes gender neutral language.

SECTION 16 replaces the Schedule with a new Schedule.

SECTION 17 is the effective date of these regulations.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 provides a definition of “noise exposure limit” and explains the meaning of the noise terminology and measurements used in these regulations. In addition, the section requires employers to measure the noise exposure of workers in certain situations and to inform workers of the results. It also requires employers to reduce noise levels, and workers to wear hearing protection, where the noise exposure of a worker at a workplace exceeds a noise exposure limit. Finally, this section requires an employer to ensure that workers are given hearing tests if they have a noise exposure that exceeds a noise exposure limit.

SECTION 2 amends the definition of “confined space”.

SECTION 3 revokes the material respecting hearing protection currently in the regulations.

SECTION 4 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
