- (m) whether the consultant lobbyist has lobbied or expects to lobby a member of the Legislative Assembly in the member's capacity as a member or a person on the staff of a member of the Legislative Assembly;
- (n) where the consultant lobbyist has undertaken to lobby as described in subclauses 1(1)(d)(i) to (ix), the techniques of communication, including grass-roots communication, that the consultant lobbyist has used or expects to use to lobby; and
- (o) such additional information as may be prescribed with respect to the identity of a person or entity described in this section.

Change to information in return

- (5) A consultant lobbyist shall provide the Registrar with any change to the information in the return of the consultant lobbyist and any information required to be provided under subsection (4), the knowledge of which the consultant lobbyist acquired only after the return was filed, not later than 30 days after the change occurs or the knowledge is acquired.

Completion of undertaking

- (6) A consultant lobbyist shall advise the Registrar that the consultant lobbyist has completed an undertaking in respect of which the consultant lobbyist has filed a return or that the undertaking has been terminated not later than 30 days after the completion or termination of the undertaking.

Clarification of information

- (7) A consultant lobbyist shall provide the Registrar with any information that the Registrar may request to clarify any information that the consultant lobbyist has provided to the Registrar under this section not later than 30 days after the Registrar makes the request.

Section does not apply

- (8) This section does not apply in respect of anything that an employee, as defined in subsection 6(1) or 7(1), undertakes to do on the sole behalf of the employee's employer or, where the employer is a corporation, in respect of anything that the employee, at the direction of the employer, undertakes to do on behalf of any subsidiary of the employer or any corporation of which the employer is a subsidiary. 2017,c.8,s.4.

5. Receipt of contingent payments by consultant lobbyists prohibited

- (1) A consultant lobbyist shall not receive any payment that is, in whole or in part, contingent on the consultant lobbyist's degree of success in lobbying.

Contingent payments to consultant lobbyists prohibited

- (2) A client of a consultant lobbyist shall not make any payment to a consultant lobbyist that is, in whole or in part, contingent on the consultant lobbyist's degree of success in lobbying.

Transitional provision

- (3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), where a consultant lobbyist, before the coming into force of this section, has entered into an agreement that provides for payment that is, in whole or in part, contingent on the consultant lobbyist's degree of success in lobbying, payment on that basis under the agreement is permitted for a maximum period of twenty-four months after this section comes into force. 2017,c.8,s.5.

6. Definitions related to in-house lobbyists employed by persons or partnerships

- (1) In this section,
- (a) “employee” includes an officer who is compensated for the performance of the officer's duties;
 - (b) “in-house lobbyist” means an individual who is employed by a person or partnership other than an organization
 - (i) whose duties as an employee are to lobby for at least 50 hours in a three-month period on behalf of the person or partnership or, where the person is a corporation, on behalf of any subsidiary of the corporation or any corporation of which the corporation is a subsidiary, or
 - (ii) a part of whose duties as an employee is to lobby on behalf of the person or partnership or, where the person is a corporation, on behalf of any subsidiary of the corporation or any corporation of which the corporation is a subsidiary, if the employee's duties to lobby together with the duties of other employees to lobby would constitute at least 50 hours of lobbying in a three-month period by one employee, were those duties to lobby to be performed by only one employee.

In-house lobbyist shall file return

- (2) An in-house lobbyist shall file a return with the Registrar
- (a) within two months after the day on which the individual becomes an in-house lobbyist; and
 - (b) within 30 days after the expiration of each six-month period after the date of filing the previous return.

Filing after coming into force of this section

- (3) An individual who is an in-house lobbyist on the coming into force of this section shall file a return with the Registrar within two months after the day on which this section comes into force and after that in accordance with clause (2)(b).

Content of return

- (4) An in-house lobbyist shall set out in the return required by subsection (2) or (3) the following information:
- (a) the name and business address of the in-house lobbyist;
 - (b) the name and business address of the employer;
 - (c) where the employer is a corporation, the name and business address of each subsidiary of the corporation that, to the knowledge of the in-house lobbyist, has a direct interest in the outcome of the in-house lobbyist's activities on behalf of the employer;
 - (d) where the employer is a corporation that is a subsidiary of any other corporation, the name and business address of that other corporation;
 - (e) where applicable, the fiscal year of the employer;
 - (f) a general description of the employer's business or activities;
 - (g) where the employer is funded, in whole or in part, by a government or government agency, the name of the government or government agency, as the case may be, and the amount of funding received by the employer from that government or government agency;
 - (h) the name and business address of any entity or organization, other than a government or government agency, that, to the knowledge of the in-house lobbyist, contributed, during the entity's or organization's fiscal year that precedes the filing of the return, $750 or more toward the in-house lobbyist's activities on behalf of the employer;
 - (i) the name and business address of any individual who, to the knowledge of the in-house lobbyist, made a contribution described in clause (h) on behalf of an entity or organization described in that clause;
 - (j) where the in-house lobbyist is lobbying at the time the return is filed, the subject-matter in respect of which the in-house lobbyist is lobbying and any other prescribed information respecting the subject-matter;
 - (k) the subject-matters in respect of which the in-house lobbyist has lobbied or expects to lobby during the fiscal year of the employer in which the return is filed or, where the employer does not have a fiscal year, during the calendar year in which the return is filed, and any other prescribed information respecting those subject-matters;
 - (l) particulars to identify any relevant legislative proposal, bill, resolution, regulation, policy, program, decision, grant, contribution or financial benefit;
 - (m) the name of any department of the Government or any other agency of government, within the meaning of the Audit Act, in which any public-office holder is employed or serves whom the in-house lobbyist has lobbied or expects to lobby during the fiscal year of the employer in which the return is filed or, where the employer does not have a fiscal year, during the calendar year in which the return is filed;
 - (n) whether the in-house lobbyist has lobbied or expects to lobby a member of the Legislative Assembly in the member's capacity as a member or a person on the staff of a member of the Legislative Assembly during the fiscal year of the employer in which the return is filed or, where the employer does not have a fiscal year, during the calendar year in which the return is filed;

- (o) the techniques of communication, including grass-roots communication, that the in-house lobbyist has used or expects to use to lobby during the fiscal year of the employer in which the return is filed or, where the employer does not have a fiscal year, during the calendar year in which the return is filed; and
- (p) such additional information as may be prescribed with respect to the identity of a person or entity described in this section.

Change to information in return

- (5) An in-house lobbyist shall provide the Registrar with any change to the information in the return of the in-house lobbyist and any information required to be provided under subsection (4), the knowledge of which the in-house lobbyist acquired only after the return was filed, not later than 30 days after the change occurs or the knowledge is acquired.

Ceasing employment as in-house lobbyist

- (6) An in-house lobbyist who ceases to be an in-house lobbyist or to be employed by the employer of the in-house lobbyist shall advise the Registrar of that not later than 30 days after the in-house lobbyist ceases to be an in-house lobbyist or ceases to be employed by the employer.

Clarification of information

- (7) An in-house lobbyist shall provide the Registrar with any information that the Registrar may request to clarify any information that the in-house lobbyist has provided to the Registrar under this section not later than 30 days after the Registrar makes the request. 2017, c.8, s.6.

7. Definitions related to in-house lobbyists employed by organizations

- (1) In this section,
 - (a) “employee” includes an officer who is compensated for the performance of the officer’s duties;
 - (b) “in-house lobbyist” means an individual who is employed by an organization
 - (i) whose duties as an employee are to lobby for at least 50 hours in a three-month period on behalf of the organization, or

 - (ii) expects to use to lobby during the next following six-month period;
- (o) the name of any in-house lobbyist who has been identified in the last return filed and has ceased to be an in-house lobbyist or to be employed by the organization; and
- (p) such additional information as may be prescribed with respect to the identity of a person or entity described in this section.

Clarification of information

- (5) The senior officer shall provide the Registrar with any information that the Registrar may request to clarify any information that the senior officer has provided in the return of the senior officer not later than 30 days after the Registrar makes the request. 2017,c.8,s.7.

8. Certification of returns or documents

Every individual who submits a return or other document to the Registrar under this Act shall certify that the information contained in it is true to the best of the individual's knowledge and belief on the return or other document or, where it is submitted in electronic or other form in accordance with subsection 9(1), in the manner that is specified by the Registrar. 2017,c.8,s.8.

9. Filing of returns, information or documents

- (1) Returns to be filed with the Registrar and information and other documents to be provided to the Registrar under this Act shall be submitted in a form and manner approved by the Registrar.

Fees

- (2) Returns to be filed shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

Date of filing

- (3) Subject to section 13, a return that meets the requirements of this section is deemed to have been filed, and information or a document is deemed to have been provided, under this Act, on the date on which the Registrar receives it. 2017,c.8,s.9.

10. Storage of returns and documents

- (1) Subject to the regulations, any return or other document that is received by the Registrar may be entered or recorded by any information storage device, including any system of mechanical or electronic data processing, that is capable of reproducing the stored return or other document in intelligible form within a reasonable time.

Certified copy admissible without proof of signature

- (2) In any prosecution for an offence under this Act, a copy of a return or other document that is reproduced from an information storage device referred to in subsection (1) and certified under the Registrar's signature as a true copy is admissible in evidence without proof of the signature or official character of the person appearing to have signed the copy. 2017,c.8,s.10.

11. Registry

- (1) The Registrar shall establish and maintain a registry of lobbyists in which shall be kept a copy of all returns filed under this Act as revised by other documents submitted to the Registrar under this Act.

Organization of Registry

- (2) The Registry shall be organized in the manner and kept in the form that the Registrar determines.

Public inspection

- (3) The Registry shall be available for public inspection electronically on-line, including through the Internet, and in any other manner and during the time that the Registrar determines.
2017,c.8,s.11.

12. Verification of information

The Registrar may verify the information contained in any return or other document submitted to the Registrar under this Act. 2017,c.8,s.12.

13. Registrar may refuse document

- (1) The Registrar may refuse to accept any return or other document submitted to the Registrar under this Act that does not comply with this Act or the regulations, or that contains information or statements not requested in the return or other documents.

Manner of refusal

- (2) Where the Registrar refuses to accept a return or other documents under subsection (1), the Registrar shall inform the individual who submitted it of the refusal and the reason for the refusal in the prescribed manner.

Time for re-filing

- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act respecting times for filing a return or submitting another document, where a return or other document is refused by the Registrar under subsection (1) and the individual cannot reasonably submit another by the time set out in this Act for filing or submitting it, the Registrar shall provide the individual with a reasonable extension of time to file another return or submit another document.

Date of re-filing

- (4) Where the Registrar accepts another return or document within the extension of time referred to in subsection (3), the return is deemed to have been filed or the other document is deemed to have been submitted on the day on which the return or the other document that was refused was received by the Registrar. 2017,c.8,s.13.

14. When Registrar may remove return

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Registrar may remove a return from the Registry if the individual who filed the return fails to
 - (a) advise the Registrar of the matters required by subsection 4(7) or 6(6) within the period required by the subsection; or
 - (b) give the Registrar any requested information relating to the return within the period specified by this Act.

Notification required

- (2) The Registrar shall notify the individual who filed the return of the requirement to meet the obligation and the particulars of the failure to do so, and if the obligation is not met within five days of the notification, the Registrar may then remove the return from the Registry.

Deemed not filed

- (3) When a return is removed from the Registry, the individual who filed it is deemed, for the purposes of the individual's existing and future obligations under this Act, not to have filed the return. 2017,c.8,s.14.

15. Advisory opinions and interpretation bulletins

- (1) The Registrar may issue advisory opinions and interpretation bulletins with respect to the enforcement, interpretation or application of this Act or the regulations.

Not binding

- (2) Advisory opinions and interpretation bulletins issued pursuant to subsection (1) are not binding. 2017,c.8,s.15.

16. Additional duty of Registrar

In addition to the other powers conferred or other duties imposed under this Act, the Registrar's duties and functions include developing and implementing educational programs to foster public awareness of the requirements of this Act, particularly on the part of lobbyists, their clients or employers and public-office holders. 2017,c.8,s.16.

17. Former public-office holders

- (1) A person who is a former public-office holder shall not lobby as a consultant lobbyist within the meaning of subsection 4(1) or an in-house lobbyist within the meaning of subsection 6(1) or 7(1) for a period of six months after that person has ceased to be a public-office holder.

Application

- (2) Subsection (1) shall only apply to a person who has held any of the following positions:
- (a) Minister;
 - (b) member or officer of the Legislative Assembly;
 - (c) deputy minister of a department or an equivalent position in the Premier's office;
 - (d) Secretary to Treasury Board;
 - (e) Clerk or Clerk Assistant of the Executive Council;
 - (f) any other position that is specified by the regulations. 2017,c.8,s.17.

18. Delegation of Registrar's powers and duties

- (1) The Registrar may delegate, in writing, any of the Registrar's powers or duties under this Act to a person employed in the Registrar's office and may authorize that person to delegate any of those powers or duties to another person employed in that office.

Conditions and restrictions

- (2) A delegation may be made subject to such conditions and restrictions as the person making the delegation considers appropriate. 2017,c.8,s.18.

19. Offences

- (1) Every individual who fails to comply with subsection 4(2), (3), (4), (5), (6) or (7), 5(1) or (2), 6(2), (3), (4), (5), (6) or (7), 7(2), (3), (4) or (5) or 17(1) is guilty of an offence.

Offence

- (2) Every individual who knowingly makes a false or misleading statement in a return or other document submitted to the Registrar under this Act is guilty of an offence.

Offence

- (3) Every

- (a) consultant lobbyist within the meaning of subsection 4(1); or
(b) in-house lobbyist within the meaning of subsection 6(1) or 7(1),

is guilty of an offence if that person lobbies a public-office holder when not registered in the Registry with respect to those lobbying activities.

Offence

- (4) Every

- (a) consultant lobbyist within the meaning of subsection 4(1); or
(b) in-house lobbyist within the meaning of subsection 6(1) or 7(1),

is guilty of an offence if, in the course of lobbying a public-office holder, the consultant lobbyist or in-house lobbyist knowingly places the public-office holder in a position of real or potential conflict of interest.

Penalties

- (5) An individual who is guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than $25,000.

Limitation period

- (6) No proceeding in respect of an offence under this section shall be commenced more than two years after the time when the subject-matter of the proceeding arose. 2017,c.8,s.19.

20. Regulations

The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations

- (a) respecting the determination of when the duties of an employee to lobby on behalf of an employer constitute a significant part of the employee's duties as an employee for the purpose of the definitions of "in-house lobbyist" in subsections 6(1) and 7(1);
- (b) requiring a fee to be paid on the filing of a return or a return of a class or subclass of returns under section 4, 6 or 7;
- (c) prescribing the fee referred to in clause (b) or the manner of determining it, and providing for a difference in or the waiver of the fee for filing a return in specified circumstances or for specified persons, partnerships or organizations or for a class or subclass of returns;
- (d) respecting the entering or recording of any return or other document pursuant to subsection 10(1);
- (e) prescribing any matter or thing that by this Act is to be or may be prescribed or specified by the regulations;
- (f) defining any word or expression used but not defined in this Act;

- (g) further defining any word or expression defined in this Act;
- (h) generally respecting any other matter or thing that is considered necessary or advisable to carry out effectively the intent and purposes of this Act. 2017,c.8,s.20.
